

CELEBRATING US THIS
Valentine's Day

The Day We Met

We met at work when I was asked to train you.

I fell for you instantly, even though you didn't like my vibe at first 😅

I kept pushing, and one day it worked.

The day you left, we went home together – and that's when everything clicked ❤️

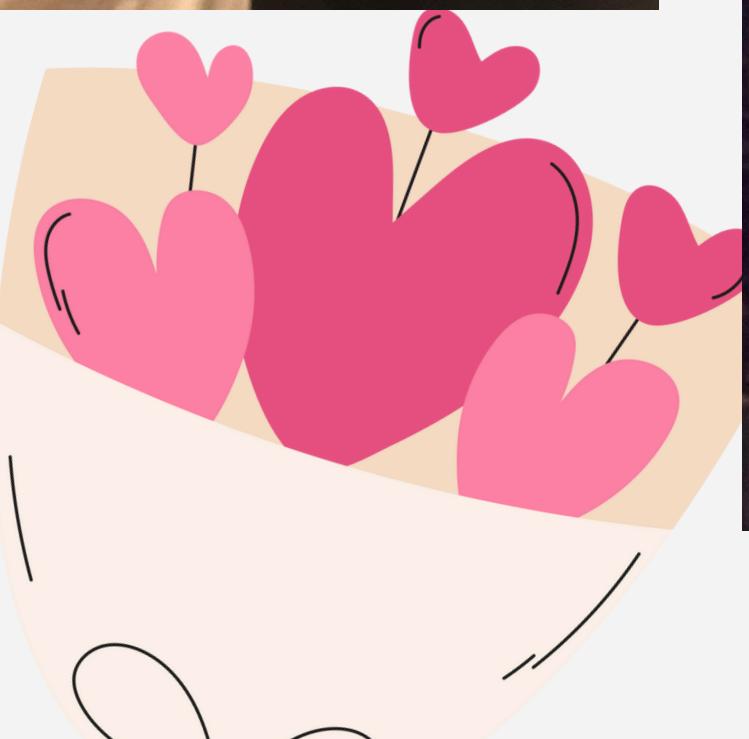

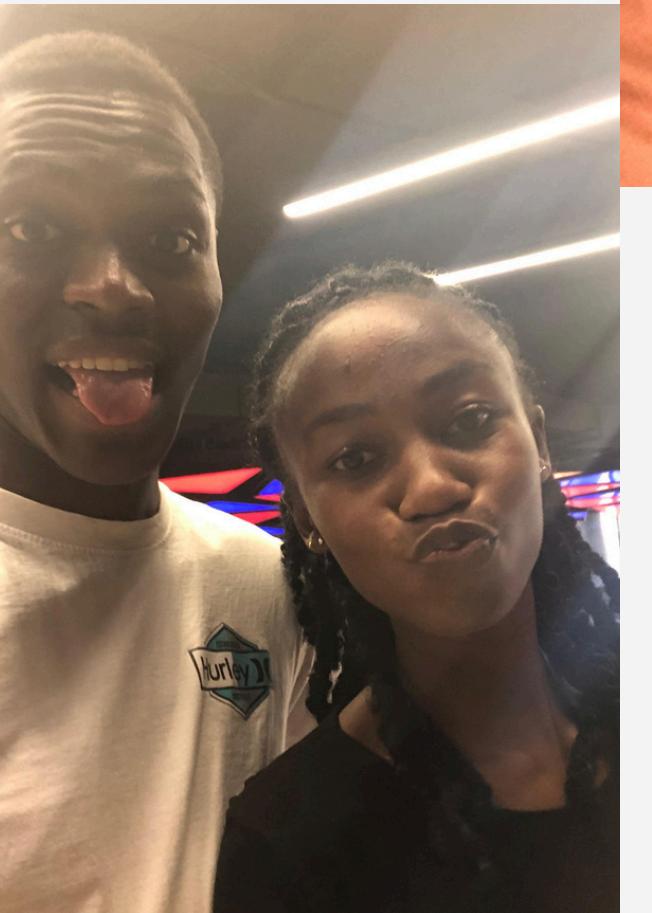

Our First Date

We went bowling, did a little shopping, and explored together.

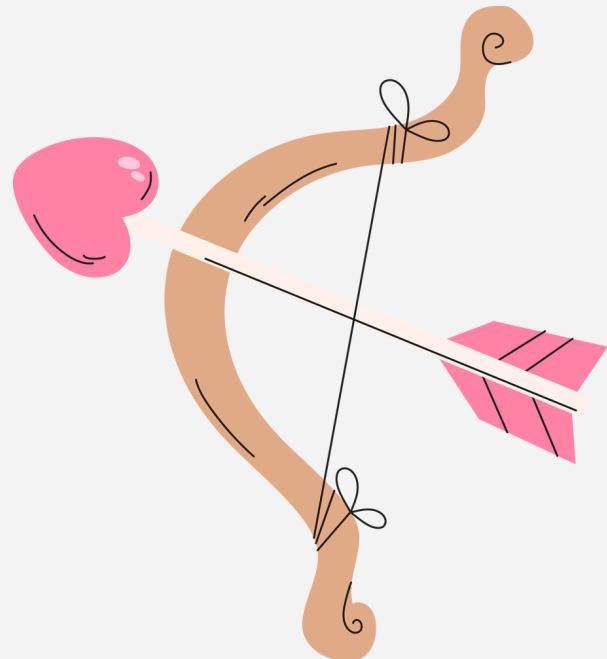

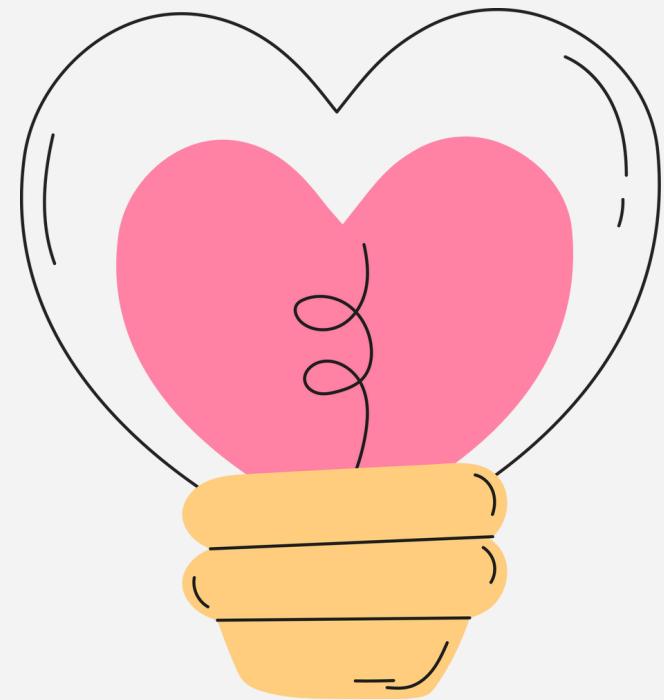

I was excited and nervous at first, but it turned into such a fun day.

We laughed, enjoyed every moment, and you completely surprised me — especially at bowling 😍

That day will always stay with me.

Our Journey

We met at work... and the spark was instant.

From bowling to shopping and exploring,

For me It was surely love at first sight

Our Ups and Downs

Do you still remember our first big argument?

We fought about politics –
Raila vs Ruto 😅

You were team Ruto, I was team Raila, and we were both stubborn.

We even slept mad and continued the argument kidogo the next morning.

But we talked it out... and love won ❤️

Just Between Us

Do you remember how we'd keep gossiping about people everywhere we went, especially at events? 😂

Always giving tea, always whispering,
until you'd laugh and say, “Ntakuja kupigwa one day, aki sisi.”

Our Favorite Moments

There are so many things that we did that never fails to make me smile and these are my top 3:

- when you first kissed me
kwa ile uber
- when went for bowling
- when we had that december holiday kwenyu

Inside Jokes

We both love to joke around. Our little inside jokes make me smile when I remember them even when we are not together.(Unakumba what has happed na ule makanga wa Hii ni nini)

I'm sure our unique humor makes our bond stronger

Our Favorite Melody

When we asked each other what song we would like to be played on our wedding day, we both said the same thing. (A thousand Years - Christinna Perri &Beautiful in white -Shane Filan)

We're going to make sure it will be played when I walk down the aisle.
